Awa to Maunga

“E rere kau mai te Āwanui,

Mai i te Kāhui maunga ki Tangaroa

Kō au te Āwa, kō te Āwa kō au.”

“The great river flows from the mountains to the sea. I am the river, the river is me.”

Welcome to Whanganui. This is our place; where history is full of stories, legends and rich legacy. Where a thriving arts scene, creativity and evolving culture inspire our modern lives. Where breath-taking natural landscapes capture imaginations at every turn.

Creativity, innovative spirit, cultural integrity and strength of artistic tradition have won Whanganui recognition as an internationally significant UNESCO City of Design.

Whanganui city is a unique blend of heritage architecture and cutting-edge creativity. We're big enough to support ground-breaking ambitions and small enough for authentic connection. The Whanganui region is rich in history, culture and a diverse natural environment. Our beauty, legends and river have inspired generations of visitors and inhabitants.

A short scenic 2 hour drive from Whanganui is Taranaki.

Taranaki is as vibrant as it is peaceful. An extraordinary region with abundant nature, remarkable history, unique events and unrivalled experiences – not to mention a distinctive mountain-to-sea lifestyle.

Discover our line-up of new products and familiarise yourself with our diverse trade-ready operators, as well as our passionate, and flourishing visitor and hospitality industry.

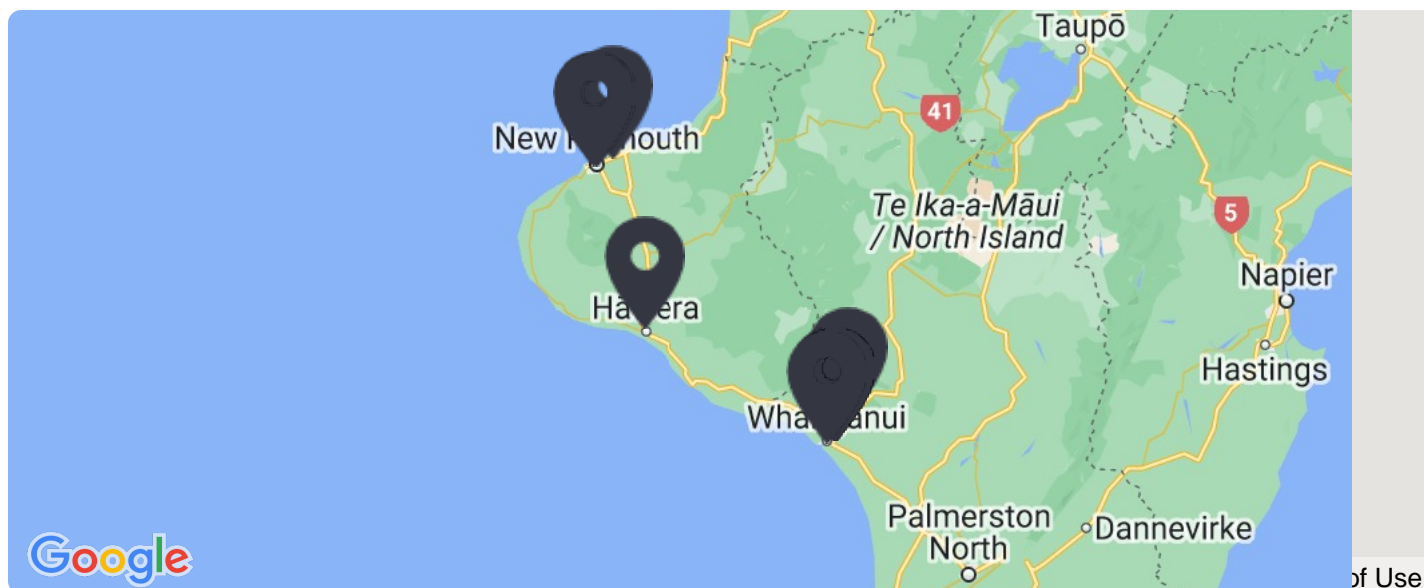

We continue to surprise and delight travellers with all we have on offer, and leave a lasting impression with our like no other natural landscapes, arts and culture, food and hospitality, and vibrant events.

International visitation and interest is growing with visitors looking for new and less travelled destination options that offer unique and authentic experiences.

Taranaki has so much on offer, all year round. We're a hospitable and welcoming bunch, and when it comes time for our manuhiri (visitors) to go, we'll send them off with a nourished, replenished, and energised spirit.

We've been the place to have fun and connect by the Whanganui Awa ever since 2011. Our riverside location is the perfect backdrop for your next overdue (let's be honest) catch up with friends, important work meeting, birthday celebration or that (rare) coffee in peace during your busy day. We're here for it all.

Our team are hospitality professionals who care about making genuine connections with you, the customer. We think we're pretty lucky ducks to get to share your life's moments, big and small, on the daily.

You know what they say – if it looks like a duck, walks like a duck, and talks like a duck, has great food, great drinks, and great service it's probably Mud Ducks.

New Zealand Glassworks, 2 Rutland Street, Whanganui 4500, New Zealand

Home to the heritage craft of art glass, New Zealand Glassworks – Te Whare Tūhua o Te Ao is the national centre for art glass located in the heart of old Whanganui. The town has a long history with art glass and is home to many practitioners working within this extraordinary heritage craft. New Zealand Glassworks (NZG) is located in the old printing press building for the local newspaper The Chronicle. This unique environment provides a vibrant centre for artists to create, exhibit, and to be inspired.

Learn the basic art of hot glass by making your own paperweight. Whether you come alone or with a group, you will have a fun and memorable experience. No prior skills are required, just your creativity and enthusiasm.

Paddle Steamer Waimarie

1a Taupo Quay, 1 Taupo Quay, Whanganui 4500, New Zealand

The Paddle Steamer Waimarie was salvaged from the bottom of the Whanganui River, where it sat for around 50 years, and restored to its former glory and re-launched in 2000 to make it New Zealand's last steam-powered and coal-fired passenger paddle steamer operating from the golden riverboat era of the late 19th and early 20th centuries. The Waimarie cruises upriver from October to May.

Experience river travel as it used to be as you listen to commentary, take in the beautiful scenery, maybe meet the homing pigeons on our two hour cruise departing at 11am and returning at 1pm.

Your cruise leaves the Riverboat Centre Wharf and heads up river taking in the scenery and views of Whanganui which can only be experienced from Te Awa Tupua, the Whanganui River.

Our commentary shares riverboat history and points of interest along the way. Check out the boiler that powers our paddle steamer, and maybe meet our homing pigeons and send a message with them on their flight back to the Riverboat Centre.

Our friendly team are only too happy to answer any questions you may have along the way.

Gin Crafting Experience with Papaiti Gin

Papaiti Gin

Papaiti Gin, 454 State Highway 4, Upokongaro 4575, New Zealand

Papaiti Gin is a new distillery in Whanganui, and it's a popular experience for locals and tourists cycling the Mountains to Sea trail. Experience making your own gin with local botanicals, or wander past the cellar door for a tasting.

Ever thought about making your own gin? Here's your opportunity: take a peak behind the scenes of Whanganui's first Craft Gin Distillery and learn everything there is about botanicals, distilling and, of course, crafting gin. This is as hands-on as it gets: you'll be introduced to a wide range of botanicals (and can even bring your own, if you have a special flavour in mind), pick your own mix and learn how to use a 5l copper still. And yes, you definitely get to take home your very own bottle of gin. Our master distiller Adrian will guide you through the whole process.

Durie Hill Elevator

Durie Hill Elevator

Durie Hill Elevator, 3 Blyth Street, Whanganui 4501, New Zealand

Built in 1919, The Durie Hill Elevator is New Zealand's only public transport elevator and is still used on a daily basis by locals and visitors.

Access is through a long pedestrian tunnel, or an adit to be more precise – this tunnel has no exit point. You'll be welcomed aboard the elevator for the 66-metre ride to the top of the hill. The ride costs $2 (each way) for adults, $1 for children and eftpos is available. The elevator operates 8am–6pm weekdays, and 10am–5pm weekends.

The construction of the Durie Hill Underground Elevator enabled the development of the Durie Hill Garden Suburb in 1920. This suburb was planned by the architect Samuel Hurst Seager, and is considered to be the first modern New Zealand suburb.

Once you get to the top of the hill, you'll see the Durie Hill War Memorial Tower. The height of the lookout deck is 113-metres (372.2 feet) above sea level and provides the best panoramic views of the city, Whanganui River and the harbour. On a fine day, you can see Mt Taranaki, Mt Ruapehu and the northernmost tip of the South Island. If you're looking for an IG worthy spot, this is it!

The Southern Hemisphere's only in-ground public transport elevator. The Durie Hill Elevator was built 1919 to help the residents of the hilltop Durie Hill suburb commute into town. The view from the top is fantastic – as is the long, 213-metre tunnel you take to reach the elevator (definitely a highlight for photographers).

Bridge To Nowhere Tour - The Valley of abandoned dreams

Whanganui Tours

Whanganui Tours, 51 Abbot Street, Whanganui 4501, New Zealand

Tracy offers unique Scenic Mail Run and Cycle Trail tour combinations including fully supported Mountains to Sea - Nga Ara Tūhono adventures, river journeys and more.

Whether it is discovering the local area, needing support for cycle tour plans or discovering somewhere new, her team can take care of everything for visitors to the Whanganui region. She works with locals across the valley, and brings her knowledge borne of her whakapapa to the area and bountiful manaakitanga to share.

Passionate about the river valley and surrounding area, she likes to create connections between people and places, her focus is on ensuring she can deliver the very best experience.

Join your local guide as they deliver the mail up the Whanganui River Road. Stop to chat to locals and grab some morning tea. Visit some of our special places along the way.

Rich in history and culture, you will learn about local Iwi (tribe), Te Awa Tupua – their River of Sacred Power and why the river was vitally important for transport, food and spiritual wellbeing for local Māori. Hear stories of the early settlers and the paddle steamers that plied the river, deep into the interior of the Whanganui.

Upon your arrival in Pipiriki you will join Whanganui River Adventures on the “Bridge to Nowhere” tour, departing from Pipiriki, we jet boat upriver for 32kms (55 mins) through fern & flax cloaked gorges, along the way your local driver/guide will stop and share with you historical and scenic points of interest.

The scenery through the river valley is spectacular and mystical. Along the way you are bound to spot canoeists making their way down the final sections of their Whanganui River Journey – NZ's only Great Walk on water.

On arrival at the Mangapurua Landing, you'll walk 40 mins along a relatively flat track up the valley to the spectacular Bridge to Nowhere. A Bridge that stands testament to an ill-fated and some would suggest poorly planned post war farm settlement programme. Today it is host to regenerating ngahere (forest), birds and other wildlife. During the Summer you'll also surely see cyclists appearing out of the valley on their Mountains to Sea – Nga Ara Tūhono adventure.

If you have never used a helicopter before, but think you have a job that requires one, contact us, and we will be able to provide you with an estimate. It is proven that the utilisation of helicopters provides an efficient tool and thus a cost-effective option when shifting people, or goods, particularly on diverse terrain and remote locations that varying projects require throughout New Zealand.

Take a tour around the magnificent Taranaki Maunga, standing at 2,518 metres high. It is the grand gem of the Taranaki region and is surrounded by the lush forest of Te Papakura O Taranaki (formerly Egmont National Park). The volcano last erupted in 1755 AD and is now considered dormant.

Our flight takes off from NP Airport heading south along the coast, past New Plymouth city, Port Taranaki, Paritutu and the Sugarloaf Islands towards the headwaters of the Stony River where the trip then ascends towards the volcano summit (weather permitting). From there, we swoop down to the Ahukawakawa swamp, the Pouakai and Kaitake Ranges before heading back to the airport.

All food items brought into New Zealand, even the smallest amounts, need to be declared. Tourism New Zealand recommends that you do not pack any food products for your trip.

Any food you are provided on the plane needs to be left on the plane, disposed of in one of the airport disposal bins or declared.

Any hiking shoes, sporting or camping equipment you bring should be declared at the border where they will be checked for soil, plant matter and seeds. We recommend that if you are bringing these items, you pack them in an accessible place.

It is not illegal to bring these items into the country as long as you declare them on the passenger arrival card you will be given on the plane. Failing to declare food, plants or equipment that may carry soil or plant matter, may result in a fine. For detailed information please go to the New Zealand Customs Service site at:

<http://www.customs.govt.nz/features/prohibited/imports/Pages/default.aspx>

CURRENCY

The currency of New Zealand is the New Zealand Dollar. Major credit cards are widely accepted in hotels, banks and shops. ATMs accept cards that are part of the Cirrus, Maestro or Plus systems that have a four-digit PIN encoded. Check with your bank before departure if you are unsure of the international status of a card you plan to use in New Zealand.

GOODS AND SERVICES TAX

All goods and services purchased in New Zealand are subject to a 15% GST, which is usually included in the displayed price. Visitors cannot claim refunds on this tax, although if a supplier agrees to export an item to a visitor's home address, GST is not charged on the goods or freight.

Zealand tourism's official quality mark. Most of the accommodation, attractions, activities and transport in your itinerary are Qualmark endorsed. For further information visit www.qualmark.co.nz

DRINKING AND DRIVING

New Zealand has strict drink driving laws. We recommend that you designate a sober driver for each vehicle if your group is travelling after drinking.

SMOKING

Smoking at airports is not allowed in terminal buildings. Most hotels no longer offer smoking rooms. Smoking inside public restaurants and bars has been prohibited.

HEALTH AND SAFETY

New Zealand is generally a very safe place in which to travel. However, you should take the same precautions here as you would at home to protect your valuables and keep yourself safe. Take copies of your important documents (like your passport and credit cards), and keep them separate from the originals. You should also keep a record of the description and serial number of valuable items (like digital cameras). Always lock your accommodation and vehicle and keep windows secure when you're not around.

Don't carry large amounts of cash or expensive jewellery. If withdrawing money from a machine, withdraw small amounts only - preferably during the day and shield your pin. When out at night, keep to well-lit places where other people are present. Don't take short cuts through parks or alleyways. Travel with someone you know. Store valuables securely, ideally in a safe at your accommodation. Never leave valuables or important documents in parked vehicles. Never leave bags, backpacks, wallets or cameras unattended in any public place, especially airports, ferry terminals or bus/railway stations.

EMERGENCY INFORMATION

In the unlikely event of an emergency, your Tourism New Zealand host will be able to advise you.

If you are unable to contact your Tourism New Zealand host, please contact the Regional Tourism Organisation in the region you are visiting.

The emergency telephone number in New Zealand is 111. It is a free phone call. If you have an emergency and need a quick response from the Police, the Fire Service, Ambulance or Search and Rescue, dial 111.
